Independence Day Celebration Report

Date: 15th August 2025

Venue: College Campus and Nearby Hill Area

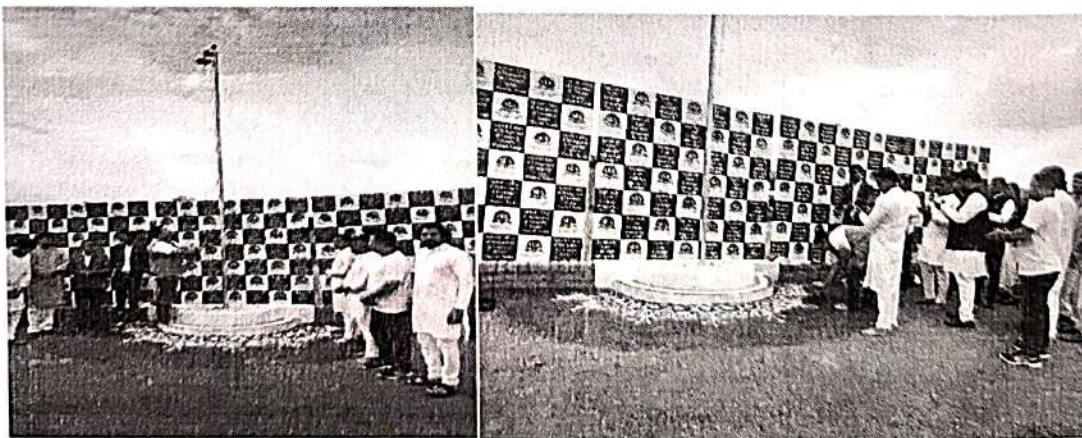

Organized by: Santosh College of Management & Computer Science Mhashrul, Nashik.
NSS Unit / Cultural Committee

1. Introduction:

The 79th Independence Day of India was celebrated with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervor at Santosh College of Management & Computer Science Mhashrul, Nashik on 15th August 2025. The event was marked by a series of activities, including the flag hoisting ceremony, cultural performances, a tree plantation drive, and an environmental checkup of the nearby hill area.

2. Flag Hoisting and Cultural Program:

The celebration commenced at 8:00 AM with the hoisting of the National Flag by the Guest, Dr. Jaydeep Somwanshi & Dr. Rahul Deshpande followed by the singing of the National Anthem. A brief speech was delivered by the Principal, highlighting the significance of Independence Day and remembering the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters. Students presented patriotic songs, speeches, and a short skit portraying the struggle for freedom and the importance of unity in diversity. The cultural program instilled a deep sense of patriotism among all attendees.

3. Tree Plantation Drive:

After the formal ceremony, a tree plantation drive was conducted on the college campus. Over 100 saplings of native and fruit-bearing trees were planted by students, faculty, and staff. The objective was to contribute to a greener environment and raise awareness about the importance of afforestation and ecological balance. The activity was coordinated by the NSS Unit and Eco/Rotary Club Nashik of the college.

4. Health Checkup:

To celebrate the 79th Independence Day with a sense of national duty and social responsibility, SCMCS College organized a Health Checkup Program for teaching and non-teaching staff. This initiative aimed to raise awareness about preventive healthcare and provide basic medical screening services to the college community.

The event was successfully conducted in collaboration with Rotary Club, Nashik bringing together healthcare professionals and college volunteers for a meaningful cause.

5. Feedback:

The Health Checkup Program was well-received by all participants. The initiative not only aligned with the patriotic spirit of Independence Day but also promoted the idea that a healthy individual contributes to a stronger nation.

5.Feedback:

The Health Checkup Program was well-received by all participants. The initiative not only aligned with the patriotic spirit of Independence Day but also promoted the idea that a healthy individual contributes to a stronger nation. Participants expressed interest in making health camps a regular feature at the college. The administration extended thanks to the medical team and student volunteers for their seamless coordination and active participation.

6.Conclusion:

The Independence Day celebration at Santosh College of Management & Computer Science Mhashrul, Nashik was not only a tribute to the nation's freedom but also a step towards nurturing nature and promoting environmental responsibility. The combined efforts of students, staff, and local community members made the event a grand success.

Let us all continue to work together to uphold the values of freedom, unity, and sustainability.
