Date: 12/08/2025

Venue: SCMCS Seminar Hall, Mhasrul Nashik.

Organized by: Santosh education society's Santosh college of management and computer Science Mhasrul, Nashik.

Introduction: "Say No to Ragging – Yes to Respect"
"Towards a Safe and Drug-Free Campus"

In alignment with national directives and the commitment to student welfare, Santosh education society's Santosh college of management and computer Science Mhasrul, Nashik. organized a combined awareness program on Anti-Ragging and Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan on 12/08/2025 date. The objective was to educate students on the dangers of ragging and substance abuse while promoting a culture of mutual respect, safety, and healthy living.

Objectives:

To sensitize students against the practice of ragging and its legal consequences.

To raise awareness about the harmful effects of drug use and addiction.

To promote a healthy, inclusive, and supportive campus environment.

To involve students in cultural expressions that promote social awareness.

Program Details:

1. Welcome Address:

The event began with a welcome speech by Ms.K.Patil highlighting the importance of awareness in combating ragging and drug abuse in educational institutions.

2. Lighting of the Lamp:

The ceremonial lamp was lit by the Principal, senior faculty members, and student representatives to invoke the blessings of knowledge and wisdom. A soft instrumental tune played in the background, creating a serene and respectful ambiance.

3. Speech by Staff Member:

A respected senior faculty member Ms.S.S.Salve, shared their journey as an educator. The speech reflected on the joys and responsibilities of teaching, the evolving teacher-student relationship in modern education, and the enduring importance of powerful speech on Lokmanya Tilak, remembering his role in the Indian freedom struggle, his famous slogan "Swaraj is my birthright," and his efforts in awakening national consciousness.

4. Poster and Slogan Competition:

Art students displayed posters and slogans on the themes "Say No to Drugs" and "Ragging-Free Campus". The best entries were awarded and showcased on college bulletin boards.

5. Address by the Principal:

Principal Mr.Shinde Y.B. sir, addressed the gathering with a powerful message emphasizing the importance of humility, respect, and lifelong learning. The principal praised the students' efforts in organizing the event and reiterated the college's commitment to holistic education and value-based teaching.

6. Pledge Ceremony:

All students and faculty took a pledge to uphold a ragging-free and drug-free campus, guided by principles of respect, empathy, and accountability.

7. Impact and Outcome:

The combined initiative had a strong impact on the students. The creative integration of culture and education made the event engaging and memorable. It empowered students to be vigilant, responsible, and compassionate, while also spreading awareness to prevent ragging and drug use.

The program concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Mr.S.Khandave, Cultural Secretary. Gratitude was extended to the Principal, faculty members, students, organizing committee, and technical support staff for making the event a success. Special thanks were given to the participants who made the celebration vibrant and memorable.

Conclusion:

The Anti-Ragging and Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan at Santosh education society's Santosh college of management and computer Science Mhasrul, Nashik was a vibrant cultural success that addressed serious issues through positive and artistic mediums. It reaffirmed the college's dedication to building a campus that is safe, inclusive, and conducive to learning and growth.
